THE MACK

Malcolm Heath

The glass is full,
The sand has yet to run.
The year lies ahead
With all its trials and hopes.

The Yearbook Staff

SEATED: Sue McNamara, Maryanne Hulslander, Beth Bonsteel, Linda Mallery, Mardis Kelsen.
STANDING: Pat Diaz, Richard Moore, Brian Kullman, Fred Sloan, Jack Pease, Len Moore.

I wish to thank the yearbook staff for their help and cooperation in publishing the "Mac" this year. A lot of thanks and gratitude also goes to the merchants and contributors for their fiscal help.

THE 1965 MAC

Volume XVIII

Dedication

As the world advances toward a higher and more demanding technology, education makes longer and longer strides in development. Library work is necessary if the student is to keep up with the progress in education. This school is fortunate in that we can be assured of kind and courteous help and guidance every time we ourselves have need of the services our school library provides.

This year we are proud to dedicate the 1965 "Mac" to Mrs. Helen Cross.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. BREAREY
Supervising Principal

Dear Seniors,

This is your year for graduation. With it goes a feeling of readiness to "get it over with"—to "move on". You must meet the immediate tasks you realize, but for the most there is an eye to the future—college, a job, service, or, for some, marriage. Last days of the year will bring nostalgia mixed with boredom and a feeling of—"I've heard that before." You may even come in contact with a disease called "Senioritis." This occurs when you reach the top of the heap and look down on those under you in school and ignore those around you—parents and teachers alike.

May I assure you that the day after you "Commence", the slow process of reacquiring perspective will begin and within several years you will return to normal. Temporary loss of memory regarding true values, such as honesty, pride in accomplishment, industry, and a sense of responsibility, will return. You may even find yourself starting a sentence with the words "if I had only listened to my teachers, I'd have—."

I would like to wish you the best of luck in your future efforts. It has been a pleasure "struggling" through the last 2 years with you.

Very truly yours,

Robert Brearey

Supervising Principal

This year our school gained a new post, that of Administrative Assistant. Mr. Stephens has ably filled this position.

Best of to everything the best in May you your future. Successful be all of your
in work

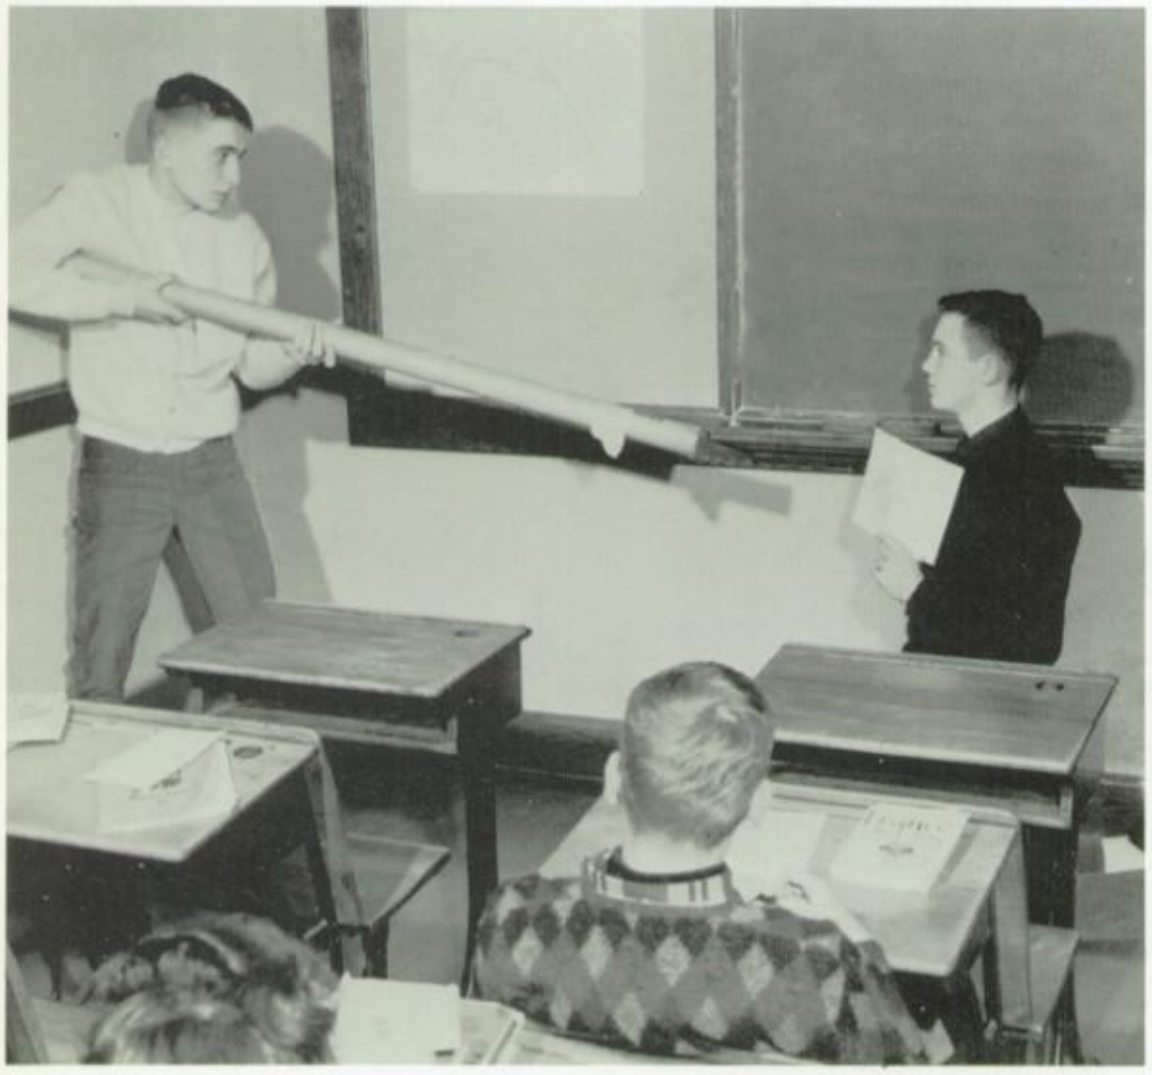
French III



A part of our French is the oral report which can often prove rather amusing. Here Jack portrays a hunter and Jerry the "pauvre ours", a poor bear.

English III

This year English classes gave panel discussions on various subjects. Here the Juniors are giving theirs to the English III class.

Geometry

The Geometry class is at the board figuring the area of polygons.

Chemistry

An important part of chemistry is the laboratory work. Len and Mardy are titrating an acid with a base to find their relative strengths.

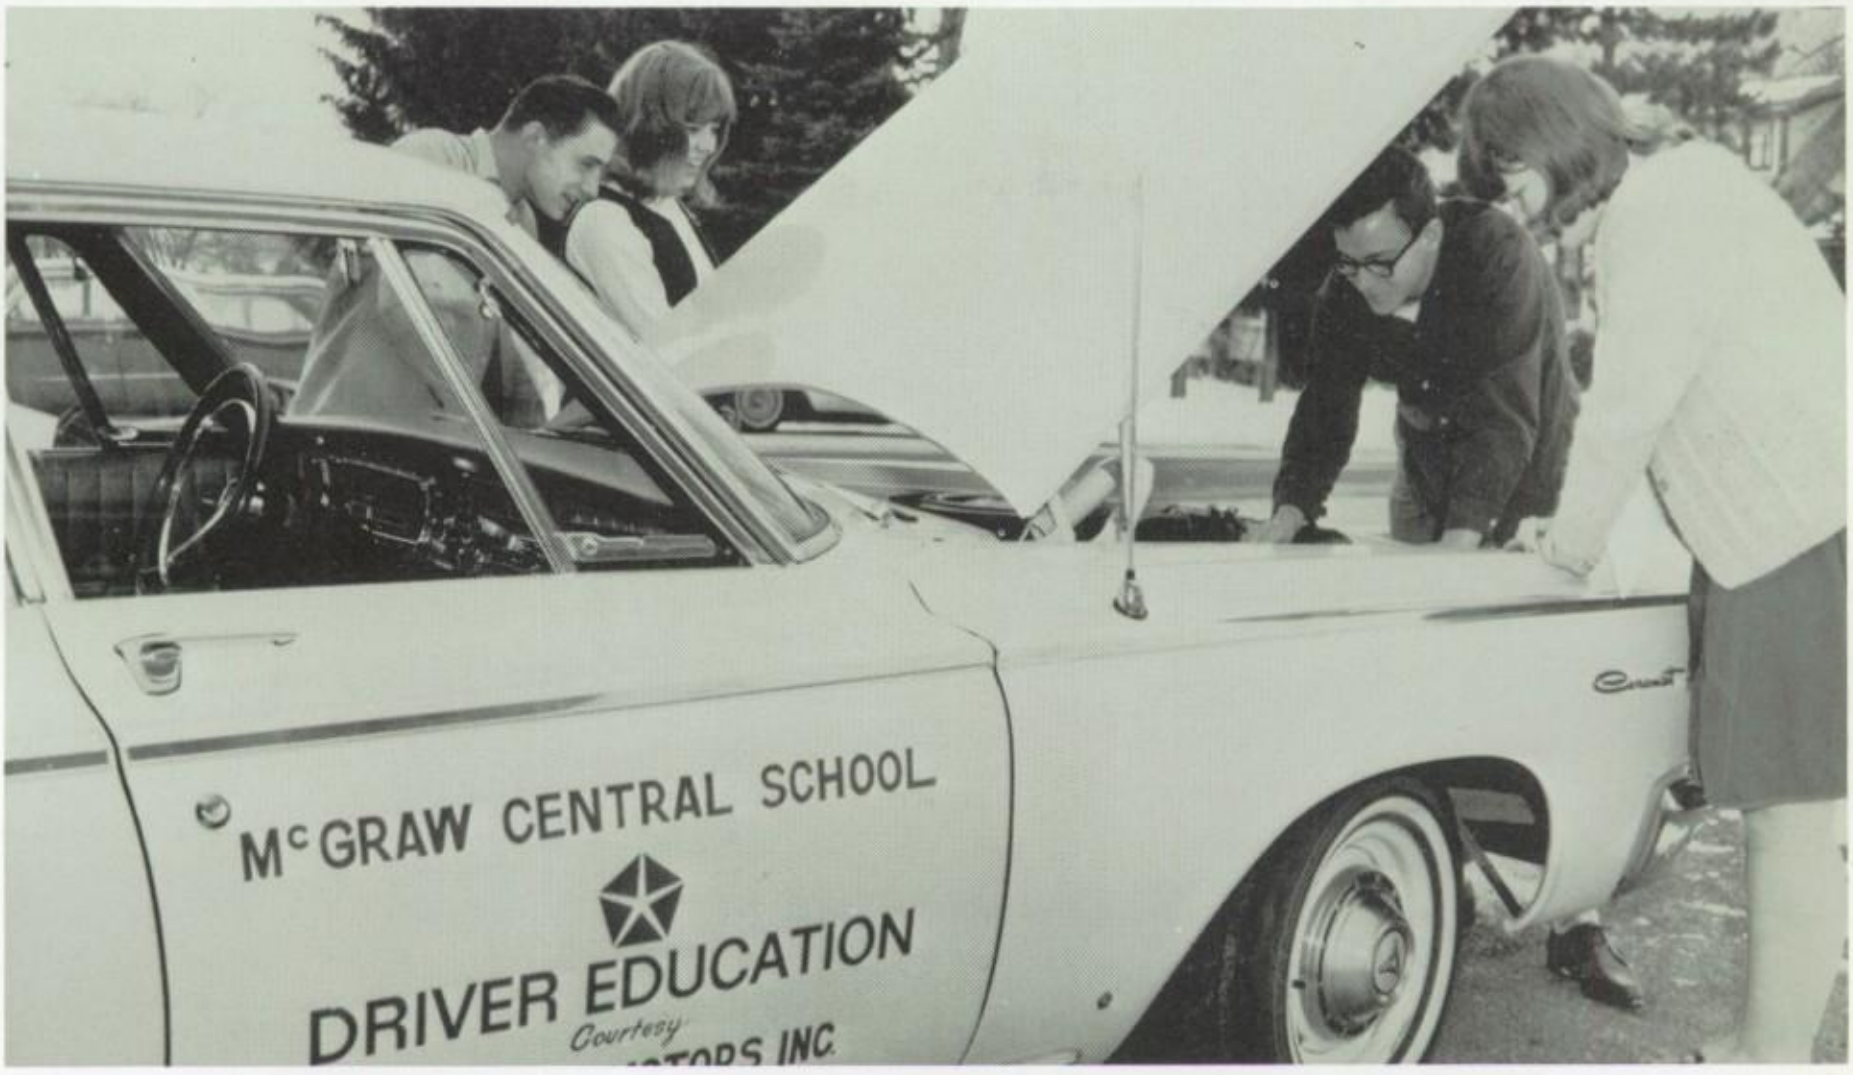
Typing

The busiest room in school. Typing is an integral part of any business course, as the filled room will testify.

Mechanical Drawing

Lois and Wayne are completing their plates for mechanical drawing. This is painstaking work that requires much concentration.

Driver Education



In Driver Education we learn not only how to drive, but also how a car operates. Bill, Cindy, Sue, and William are inspecting the motor.

Latin II

Roger is explaining to the Latin class the various areas of Gaul, which was, according to Caesar, divided in three parts.

Fourth Grade Activities

Donald McGrady, Scott Zirbel, Jay Cobb, Robert White, and Virginia Warfield, find the study of flight to be of great interest.

The study of aged skeletons of our animals today proved to be a fascinating topic for Janice Haskell, Elaine Crandall, Michael Mott, Stephen Shufelt, Kenneth Hayes and David Honour.

Dennis Macomber, Delores Schifilliti, Kenneth Paddock, Kenneth Hoyt, and Janice Beattie, are learning how the Indians lived after the settlers came.

Pretty as a picture!

The mysteries of Magnetism! Will this replace group therapy?

It's sort of hard to have fun with toys that are supposed to help build our minds.

These paints sure are good and messy! I wonder if this is why modern art is so popular?

Malcolm,
may your fondest dreams and hopes come true. Keep your nice personality and you will go far. Never forget 2nd period study hall & all the fun
we've had in history
Love
Luck Lynne

Malcolm,
Though we've had
great fun in F.F.A.
and out, I'm sure
greater times are yet to come. I hope you, me, and Donnie can get together
this summer and have some fun before school starts.
Be good
Stu

Malcolm,
A real nice guy.
Stay that way.
always luck in
the coming years
at MCS.
Hail

Malcolm, graduate and stay maybe we'll get
someday & hope,
when we do, I hope you
remember World History
4th period.
Good luck,
April
